

The garden as diversity engine

Tuinhier (the Belgian allotment federation) launched a digital brochure in September 2019.

They promote the garden, school gardens and allotment gardens as diversity engines.

The brochure contains twenty interviews from existing projects in Belgium and abroad. These allotment gardeners work with different target groups. They give specific tips and advice.

The brochure offers factsheets about communication, accessibility and good body postures in the garden.

<http://www.tuinhier.be/nl/nieuws/13161/de-tuin-als-diversiteitsmotor>

