

Project “Responding together”.

“Responding Together” is a joint project of the Council of Europe and the European Commission that provides visibility to interesting actions. It creates paths for learning on “how to act” in order to reduce poverty and precariousness.

Thus, those who have already taken initiatives can share their knowledge, stimulate, encourage and provide key insights for someone else who plans to start or improve a process similar to the one they have already undertaken.

Moreover, this project stimulates the reflection on a larger scale and will hopefully enable the organisers to put forward proposals for change to local, national, international institutions.

The allotment gardeners assume since a long time a social function. Thus they participate as well in this project.

Samples from Austria, Belgium, France, Germany, Great-Britain, the Netherlands and Switzerland have been sent to the Council of Europe
