

Study session in Luxembourg

Within the campaign without pesticides 2015, the Office International du Coin de Terre et des Jardins Familiaux organizes a study session in Luxembourg from 27th August until 30th August 2015.

The subject is: "Gardening advice considering sustainability and responsible use of resources".

The aim of the session is to make a survey of the existing practices in gardening advice in the federations and to establish a vision of how this practice should be in the future.
